

St Saviour's celebrates 'delightful record'

St Saviour's & St Olave's is delighted to announce record GCSE results, some of the best in the school's 115-year history.

At a time when huge changes have been made to the examination system and the added pressure that brings, 84% of Year 11 students achieved Grades 4 to 9 in both English and Mathematics, with 65% achieving both at grade 5 and above! The achievement of these grades represents a phenomenal performance by the girls.

Overall, 81% of students achieved Grades 4 to 9 in English and Maths and at least three other subjects at grade 4 or above. This equates to the previous main government benchmark of 5 A* to C grades including English and Maths Headteacher Catherine May said: "I am absolutely thrilled with these results and so proud of our students. They met the challenge of these new exams with focus and determination and worked incredibly hard. This success is well deserved. Our students have been well supported by their families, our teachers and our support staff, and amongst the joy and celebrations today students have been expressing their thanks. I look forward to seeing them succeed in our sixth form."

All in all, it has been another superb year for exam results at St Saviour's & St Olave's. The outstanding GCSEs followed a terrific set of A level results, which saw students gaining places at a wide variety of top-flight institutions, including Oxbridge and other Russell group universities, to read medicine, architecture, law and arts amongst others.

About St Saviour's and St Olave's

St Saviour's and St Olave's is a popular CE girls' school situated close to some of London's most historic and famous landmarks and amenities. The school itself has fascinating roots going back to 1562, under the Charter of Elizabeth I. The ethos of the school is built on Christian principles and can be described as compassionate, reflective, inclusive, supportive and transformative. Students say that they feel safe and appreciate having a voice in the school.

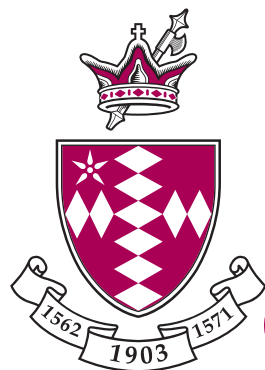

Ms May describes the school as 'an oasis for staff and students in the middle of inner London. We are a multi-cultural school which admits students of other faiths and of no faith, as well as Christians. Every member of the community is valued, with high expectations of all and from all.'

The school takes full advantage of a host of world class educational and cultural opportunities. The school is recognised as providing outstanding enrichment, involving a wide range of activities and including every member of staff and all students. These activities, together with the excellent, comprehensive curriculum, ensure that students receive a fantastic education from Year 7 right through to Year 13.
