FAMILY TICKETS TO DRUSILLAS PARK THIS HALLOWEEN

"Oh help! Oh no! It's a gruffalo!" We've conjured up some fantastically spooky surprises, including the Gruffalo who will be making an appearance on Wednesday 24th October!

Come and see the mystical monster who lives in the deep dark wood. He will be meeting brave visitors in the Events Arena at intervals throughout the day.

If it's creepy crawlies you're after, visit us for 'Spider Saturday' on 13th October where the British Tarantula Society will be displaying some of their most commonly feared animals in the Discovery Centre! Whether you want to overcome a fear or just learn more about some of the fascinating creatures, this is the event for you!

If you dare to visit Drusillas this Halloween, you better tread carefully as you wander through the cobwebbed corridors of Haunted Heights. Keep your eyes peeled for the cackling witches and moaning mummy... who knows what might be around the corner playing hide and shriek with the unsuspecting public!

Allow your wicked side to show this Halloween at Drusillas Park; the award winning zoo has all sorts of seasonal surprises and eerie entertainment planned to keep your little horrors half term happy between Saturday 20th and Sunday 28th October.

Put your nerves to the test and get ready to come face to face with g-g-g-ghosts and ghouls! Prepare yourself for a whole host of tricks, treats and blood chilling entertainment! Drusillas has heaps of wicked events planned to keep your little horrors entertained.

With all this plus the usual animal magic, oddles of adventure play, brand new attraction Go Safari! and Hello Kitty Secret Garden, you'll have a fang-tastic time at Drusillas Park.

To win one of 4 x family tickets to Drusillas, answer the following question on the entry form provided and send it to: Drusillas Halloween Competition, South London Press, Unit 4, The Gateway, 2A Rathmore Road, Charlton, London SE7 7QW. Closing date for entries: Friday 19th October 2018.
